The Whole Set!

By A Customer

I started when I was 8, and I'm proud to say, I finished the whole set by age 10. I don't read the new books as they come out anymore, though. No, I didn't buy them here, or even buy them all. I have about 40 of them, and the rest I borrowed from the library or friends. I've always loved the books and I think they are the best books out there for girls my age. They are always interesting, and deal with topics kids relate to. Every girl my age should read them if she has the chance. Over the years, I've come to know and love the characters, and I also love to read the mysteries, superspecials, and everything else. I even have the boardgame, the movies, and the old tv shows from the disney channel on tape. Note: A great companion to this series is The Complete Guide to the Baby-Sitters club, which is kind of like a BSC dictionary. Now that I'm the age of the girls in the books, I never started a babysitting club like I had planned, and I don't even read the books anymore. Yet, I can't help smile when I see them in the store, and they'll always hold a special spot in my heart. So, if you have a daughter who likes to read, this is the perfect present for her!

A Life-Long Fan

By Monique A. Williams

At 23 years-old, it's been about a decade since I stopped reading the BSC, but memories of my friends Kristy, Claudia, Mary Ann, Stacy, Dawn, Jessi, and Mallory (I never liked Shannon) are still very strong. These books were an obsession in my life from 9-11 and was more than a guilty pleasure. The innocence in this series without seeming corny make it appropriate and entertaining for tween girls. With enterprising role models like the girls in the BSC, real girls with flaws and varying characteristics, this will remain a true staple of my childhood. I only hope my daughter will grow to enjoy them as much as I did. (That would give me a great excuse to re-read them too!) Thank Ann M. Martin for giving me childhood friends who I don't have to worry about asking me what I'm doing with my life.

I love the BSC

By Linette Smith

I love the BSC. The very first one that I read was: Kristy's Big Day. I started when I was 7 years old and continued reading them until I was about 12. Now I am 21 and I have started to collect and read the books that have come out in the past 9 years. I think I like them more now, than when I was younger. I am sad that this wonderful series had to come to an end. Thank you Ann M. Martin for creating friends for girls all over the world!!
