The Complete Guide to Buying a Cafe : Good book!

By Paul

The book is Well Structured, Easy to read, Good English and is "Just to the Point", no time-wasting novelism.

The printed version of the book is essential, I read it once and I will refer to it again and again before the final decision is made. And, maybe after.. There are plenty of practical advice. My personal experience with this book is totally positive and I would recommend it to anyone who is looking into buying a cafe. Thumbs Up!

A practical step on the cafe journey

By Judy G

This book is a practical, common-sense guide to establishing a café. It's accessible to people with little industry knowledge and has helped to build my confidence about starting a café venture. It is particularly helpful on the tricky topic of business viability. It's an easy and enjoyable read that gives a good insight into the industry. But it's also something that I can see myself returning to again and again - as my own plans develop and as different sections become more relevant to me. Thank you Craig, for generously sharing your knowledge.

BEST EVER!!! - Now I'm an owner of my 1st cafe ^^ . Thanks

By Ben Kim

Hi Craig,

I just finished reading of your book "The Complete Guide to Buying a Café" and just wanted to say THANK YOU. This is definitely among the finest works I've come across, even the BEST! Love it because you really do your due diligence in checking, testing and everything else. More than that, I feel a Chill while reading it, can see the absolute passion of yours. And I needed THAT before starting my own adventure with all this. In fact, I'm in the process of negotiating the TRIAL week right now (in 3 weeks time approx), settlement is up in about 2 wks after that. SO I'M AN OWNER NOW, ALL INFO YOU PUT IS EXCELLENT. I'M SO EXCITED!!! :D, and a little THRILLED by it actually hahaha.

Again, you have my absolute admiration and thanks. Really hope you will write another book or books which offer more insights in techniques of staffing (from search to interview, training, rostering, etc.) and other aspect to sustain the café, things like food cost control, discussion on Specialty coffee. As well as discussion on current and FUTURE trends, where you think the industry in Australia is heading., and your thought on that. Just love to read more of your writing. I'll definitely get 2 or 3 more copies of this Buying Café for my friends and family. Keep it up man.
