Great effort, but looking for more depth.

By Jennifer

Let me preface this by saying I have a tremendous amount of respect for Shawanda Patterson (Bronzegoddess01) and I feel she has a lot to offer in the way of advising and uplifting women. With all that said, I would say this book is okay, but more or less like every other dating guide, just a little on the amateur side. If you watch her videos, then you have read the book. Simple as that. The title is misleading, because one would assume the content of the book would give women ideas on how to become more of a whole person whilst navigating the dating scene. There is minimal to no content in regards to that. I also expected more depth. Her Strawberry Letters on You Tube are so involved, I thought we would get the same depth in her writing. Not so much. I felt this was a chopped up, regurgitation of things I have already read elsewhere or watched on her YT channel.

Her Words Are A Gift.

By Tanisha P.

This book is a must read! Mrs. Shawnda Patterson, aka BronzeGoddess01 on Youtube has been sharing her journey, heart, and soul with the world for years. She has a divine gift, and I'm so happy that God has blessed her with another platform to reach and help so many more that are in need of encouragement, motivation, or just a spiritual friend. I have her motivational videos saved for those days when I need a pick-me-up, some sunshine, and a reminder that God isn't but a breath away. She will truly inspire you.

I love The Bronze Goddess and her Strawberry letters

By cinammon1

I had to give this book an average rating as it was an average book. I love The Bronze Goddess and her Strawberry letters. I would recommend this book to anyone who has had questions to ask The Bronze Goddess that were more general than those she answers her advice column. However, as BronzeGoddess has said before that she is more of a speaker than a writer and that is very evident in this book. I won't say that the book is poorly written, but I cannot call it a good read. The advice is sound, but if you are looking for a read as spirited as her channel, you will be surely disappointed.
